The Kids Rank Club Four Program Pillars:

Character Building: To simultaneously strengthen the positive attributes of being a military child while exploring importance of their individual family's contributions to our nation.

Community Interaction: To establish collaborative activities with local community agencies in order for the children to gain a sense of stability.

Socialization: To provide a safe environment for the fostering of peer relationships and friendship with military children in similar situations.

Leadership: To practice the various components of leadership in a club setting to gain self-confidence

Kids Rank Creed:

I am a Kids Rank Club Member.

I am a Military Child.

I will serve my community with commitment and unselfishness.

I will respect others and myself

I will represent my military family with pride and honor.

I will demonstrate and lead by my own example.

I will trust and support my fellow Club Members.

I proudly serve as a Kids Rank Club Member! HOORAH!
